THE FIGHT WAS A DRAW

Without a Decision.

OTHER BOUTS WELL CONTESTED

Lack of Money Prevented a Finish Fight in the Star Event of the Night—Billy Nally Proved a Winner in His Bout with Moore. Other Pugilistic Events.

The Country Athletic Club gave an interesting sparring entertainment last evening at the club headquarters, which was attended by several hundred Washington sports.

There was a great deal of disappointment, owing to the failure of a decision in the Bateman-Kelly fight, which was the feature of the programme. It seems a certain amount was deducted from the fight, but it was not forthcoming, and after desperate efforts to make up the required sum, a compromise was effected, and the men agreed to spar four rounds.

This was satisfactory, and as pretty a fight as has been seen in the District was the outcome.

Both the principals showed science and gameness, and kept the spectators in a fever of excitement for the four rounds. Kelly appeared somewhat the heavier, but Bateman held his own up to great shape. The referee was a well-known local sporting man, and his decision of a draw was correct, although the spectators wanted a settlement of the result.

The managers of the club are very much to blame for advertising certain purses and not making them good. The arena was well filled, but the crowd of 200 people present, and the failure to bring off the main bout of the evening to a finish was decidedly unsatisfactory.

The first scrap of the evening was that between Billy Nally, of Washington, and Fred Moore, of Wilmington. The latter was the better fighter, and the winner was no doubt the best of the fight, but the local man proved to be game to the core, and after being twice knocked down, rallied and fought his man to a good finish. The referee, however, gave the victory to Nally, and the latter was not pleased with the decision.

Mr. Nally was a white aspirant for pugilistic honors, tried to make a light against Brown, a dusky scrapper, but the latter not the decision after four rounds of pretty stiff fighting. The referee, however, gave the victory to Nally, and the latter was not pleased with the decision.

After the fight the announcement was made that an unknown was ready to meet Jack Bolan to a finish for $500 a side. A friend of Bolan accepted the offer, and the fight probably be made to come off in the near future.

PEPPER ENDS HIS SPEECH.

Lot of Trouble Caused by an Error Made by Senator Quay.

When Mr. Pepper began the second installment of his speech yesterday there was a fair attendance of Senators on both sides of the chamber, but they gradually melted away, and at one time there was only one Democrat, one Republican, and one Populist visible on the floor.

Mr. Quay was the point of no return, when Mr. Harris remarked that he regarded that suggestion as a violation of the agreement reached Wednesday, that the clock should be wound up at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Quay explained that he did not understand that there had been any agreement, and asked leave to withdraw his suggestion, but the hall had been started rolling and could not be so easily stopped.

Mr. Wolcott said he did not understand that there had been any agreement, and asked leave to withdraw his suggestion, but the hall had been started rolling and could not be so easily stopped.
